THE wait is finally over. OTV will be presenting the music lovers 'Moods and Melodies' a 30-minute musical extravaganza every Friday, beginning June 13 at 8.30 pm. M&M will present an array of singers who are already a name to reckon with. One singer per episode, they will not only render quite a few songs but will also share some of their special moments with the audience.

"The programme is the first of its kind and provides the much needed impetus to the Oriya singers who are talented and want to make it big in the industry and also those who have already carved a niche for themselves in the field of music," says associate vice-president, Ortel Communication Limited BP Rath.

Produced by Sonali Bose of Prathama Swara fame, 24 episodes of Moods and Melodies are ready for telecast. Eminent among the singers are Parthasarathy Panigrahi (who is also the programme consultant), Sailabhama Mohapatra, Mousu-
